

Santiago Staging[®] is a company focused in providing turnkey / all-inclusive outfitting services for offices. From design to construction, including furniture, specialties, equipment and branding. Want to add space for a gym? We deliver whatever you may need to have your office fitted out to your needs. A truly one stop shopping experience.

Our company consists of professionals with deep experience in the fields of Construction, Architecture, Interior design and Business Management. We offer high level of commitment, customization and design uniqueness to make your working environment functional, inspiring and invigorating.

For people and/or company based abroad, we provide English language info including:

- Detailed quotes, item by item, backed up with technical specifications and characteristics.
- Comprehensive image-based presentations, important aids for seamless communication, thereby minimizing eventual expectation / delivery gaps.
- On site reviews with English speaking Architects and representatives.
- Detailed, periodic advance reports.

We are looking forward to working with you and hopefully making your new office experience less stressful.
